Dear Ms. Jessye:

You have been selected by the Wichita Chapter of Women in Communications, Inc. as one of a prestigious list of Women in Kansas History. Others selected for this group include Nancy Landon Kassebaum, Amelia Earhart, Carrie Nation and Laura Ingalls Wilder.

Women in Communications is a group of professional women in the field of communications and we have taken on the Women in Kansas History project to make women conscious of their heritage and the accomplishments of others. The women will be used in a series of pen and ink illustrations, designed by one of our members, on note cards, calendars, tee-shirts, mugs, etc. The note cards will contain a paragraph giving a brief history of the woman and an explanation of our organization. All of the work, research, writing, (with the exception of typesetting and printing) etc., will be done by members of our group which operates as non-profit.

In order to consider you as one of our Women in Kansas History, we felt it was necessary to obtain your written permission. We would be more than happy to submit copy and art to you for final approval.

In order to complete our biographical information on you, we need your birthdate. We have completed all of our research and would like to have the note cards to the printer by August 1, 1980. We would appreciate your prompt reply.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Cathy Hall
